Types of Tort Law Damages. Louisiana law provides for two types of damages, compensatory damages and punitive damages. Compensatory damages attempt to place the injured party in the position he would have been in had the accident not occurred. Punitive damages are meant to punish the person responsible for the accident and to deter his conduct.

Louisiana law, however, employs a doctrine known as “comparative fault” in negligence cases. This means that liability will be spread to everyone who contributed to accident, in equal proportion to their proven fault. For example, let’s say you didn’t use your blinker or look over your shoulder when you were changing lanes.

Louisiana Negligence Laws - FindLaw

Law in the state of Louisiana is based on a more diverse set of sources than the laws of the other 49 states of the United States. Private law—that is, substantive law between private sector parties, principally contracts and torts—has a civil law character, based on French and Spanish codes and ultimately Roman law, with some common law influences. Louisiana's criminal law largely rests on American common law. Louisiana's administrative law is generally similar to the administrative law ...

Law of Louisiana - Wikipedia

Tort law involves claims in an action seeking to obtain a private civil remedy, typically money damages. Tort claims may be compared to criminal law, which deals with criminal wrongs that are punishable by the state. A wrongful act, such as an assault and battery, may result in both a civil lawsuit and a criminal prosecution, although in the
