Human Performance is a safety philosophy that recognizes that workers make errors. And most of the time no one cares, because nothing negative happens. Pre-Accident Investigation recognizes that these errors are a treasure of information for the organization, if the organization uses them to learn.

Written by NITA guest bloggers Michaela Vrazdova and Michael J. Dale In trial practice, the question often arises as to whether police accident reports are admissible into evidence under the business record exception to the hearsay rule, and if they are not, why not. It turns out that there is no single answer, as states differ. Therefore, this article analyzes the law regarding this issue in ...
