1. The moral code of a society determines what is right within that society; that is, if the moral code of a society says that a certain action is right, then that action is right, at least within that society (reductio assumption). 2. It is possible for there to be a society with a moral code that promotes genocide.

Moral truths are truths of reason; that is, a moral judgment is true if it is backed by better reasons than the alternatives. This is an interesting proposal.
If it is right, then there are moral facts, even though they are not empirically verifiable.
