Keep me safe 'til the storm passes by. When the long night has ended, And the storms come no more, Let me stand in Thy presence. On that bright, peaceful shore. In that land where the tempest Never comes, Lord may I Dwell with Thee when the storm passes by. 'Til the storm passes over, 'Til the thunder sounds no more; 'Til the clouds roll forever from the sky, Hold me fast, let me stand, In the hollow of Thy hand; Keep me safe 'til the storm passes by.

Miserable at home, Holland Gibson yearns for something better. But just when he thinks the situation is hopeless, three new friends appear on the horizon. Misery transforms into happiness, and while Holland is leery of his good fortune, he revels in his newfound joy until tragedy threatens to send him to the bottom again. Will he survive the latest blow and rise above it, or submit to the problem-ridden life he seems destined to live?

(Foreword by George Younce) An inspiring collection of stories behind fifty treasured songs of the faith, including "Mansion Over the Hilltop," "We Shall Behold Him," "He's Still Working on Me," and "Sweet Beulah Land."

Initially, Angella Dixon-Watson started her journaling project so she could leave her grandchildren, Cierra and Chase, her story of surviving pancreatic cancer. And, friends and family encouraged her to share her experience beyond her family. While journaling she had another title. When the journal was completed she felt the need to change it and was in meditation. On Sunday morning last weekend in July 2017, after waking up and saying "thank you for the gift of another day," those words felt like a recitation to her. She paused. And then was prompted to say "thank you for the gift of another breath," and it felt right. It is her wish for the world to know that God blessed her with His Grace and Mercy. Angella is living the "Gift of Another Breath." She is in the 10 percent club of pancreatic cancer survivors. She feels that if she doesn't share with you about God's goodness, the mountains, rocks and hills will do it. "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out." Luke

Summary: The core of this book shares editorial thoughts Janice wrote for a monthly Senior Adult newsletter at White Station Church of Christ in Memphis during 2015-2019. Janice finds humor, comfort, encouragement, and faith in life experiences that we all share. But the heart of this book is her expression of thanks to friends and family who have helped her get through the difficult journey of sadness and loss that Alzheimer's brings. Life must be shared, and it is made easier by friendships along the way.
